Jita Dash
Principal Software Engineering Manager
Microsoft
USA

Jita is Principal Software Engineering Manager at Microsoft. With over 16+ years of Software engineering experience and 8+ years of leadership experience with multiple enterprise companies. She has the experience in building successful high performing teams and delivering products/platforms to cater business vision and customer satisfaction.

Jita holds a master's degree in Biotech & Computer Science and a Post graduate diploma in Human Resource Management. She has led several women's network initiatives in various Enterprise companies including Girls Who Code and Women's Software Analytics meet-up groups and delivered several keynote speeches in many public forum and conferences as guest speaker and participated in technical panel discussions representing women's networks. She was featured in the Women in Tech profile by AOTMP in 2022.