

Prof. (Dr) Pooja Tripathi
HOD IT department, Inderprastha Engineering College, India

It gives me pleasure to know that Prince Shri Venkateshwara Padmavathy Engineering College is organising 12 th International Conference on Contemporary Engineering and Technology 2024 (ICCET). I am sure that the interaction of participants throughout the globe, internationally renowned counterparts will go a long way in knowledge sharing to help Industry, Society to grow and to compete globally. This conference will be a grand success and extend my best wishes for the success of this conference. I congratulate the Institute on preceding this wonderful step.
